DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 17-29 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 24-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 24 line 5 and claim 25 line 10 which recite "the memory" lacks clear antecedent basis because no memory have been previously recited in the claims and therefore the limitation is not clearly understood. Claims 26-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph because they depend from rejected claim 25.

Art Unit: 2666

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 19-23 and 25-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yacoby (5,214,646).

Regarding claims 19, 25:

Yacoby discloses a routing device and method for selectively bridging Ethernet frames related to a Point-to-Point Protocol over Ethernet (PPPoE) connection, comprising: receiving an Ethernet frame from a first terminal, the Ethernet frame comprising an Ether_Type field and a destination address; locating the Ether_Type field in the Ethernet frame; determining whether the Ether_Type field includes a discovery code or a session code identifying status of a PPPoE connection, wherein the Ether_Type field including the discovery code or the session code indicates that the Ethernet frame is related to the PPPoE connection; in response to a determination that the Ether_Type field includes the discovery code, (i) storing the destination

Art Unit: 2666

address in the memory and (ii) bridging the Ethernet frame to a second terminal engaged in the PPPoE connection, the destination address of the Ethernet frame addressing the second terminal; and in response to a determination that the; Ether Type field includes the session code, (i) determining whether the destination address matches a stored address in the memory and (ii) bridging the Ethernet frame to the second terminal engaged in the PPPoE connection in response to the destination address matching the stored address, the destination address of the Ethernet frame addressing the second terminal. (see col. 6 lines 1-27 which recite a bridge receiving packet information whereby a source routing identifier within the packet is checked to determine whether source routing is used or transparent routing is applied to the packet block clearly reads on the method of selectively bridging frames comprising receiving a frame having an type field for determining whether the field includes a code identifying status of a connection, wherein the code indicates a discovery code or a session code. See col. 8 line 62 to col. 9 line 22 which recite a buffer to store the header of the frames including the MAC addresses, routing field and source routing bit being provided for use to determine whether to use source routing or transparent routing based upon checking the MAC address, source routing bit and routing field in a stored table clearly reads on storing destination address in memory if the first connection, i.e. discovery code routing, is used and determining whether the destination address matches a stored address in memory if the second connection, i.e. session code routing, is used. See col. 1 lines 9-18 which recite that the invention is related to Ethernet LAN access protocols and col. 1 lines 34-55 which recite forwarding datagrams from one LAN to another clearly reads on use of Ethernet frames over point-to-point connection).

Regarding claims 20, 26:

Yacoby disclose wherein the destination address in the Ethernet frame is a MAC sub-layer address (see col. 1 lines 34-55 which recite the use of the MAC destination address).

Regarding claims 21, 27:

Yacoby disclose wherein storing the destination address in the memory comprises storing the destination address in a stored list, the stored list including destination addresses of terminals engaged in PPPoE connections, and wherein determining whether the destination address matches the stored address comprises determining whether the destination address matches an address in the stored list (in Fig. 3 see block 68 which recite determining whether the destination address DA is within the stored table and col. 6 lines 1-27).

Art Unit: 2666

Regarding claims 22-23, 28-29:

Yacoby disclose further comprising discarding the Ethernet frame upon determining that the destination address does not match the stored address and further comprising discarding the Ethernet frame upon determining that (i) the Ether Type field does not include the discovery code and (ii) the Ether Type field does not include the session code (see col. 6 lines 1-27 which recite discarding packet based on errors and matching reads on the steps of discarding frame).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 17-18 are allowed.

6. Claim 24 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
Pitt et al. disclose source routing transparent bridge

Art Unit: 2666

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a):

9. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
